MR. GLASS' CHARGE AGAINST CAPTAIN KENT.

Congressman Carter Glass has put either himself or Captain W. P. Kent, the Republican nominee for governor, in an awful position. In a public speech the Congressman has declared that Captain Kent "is not fit to be governor of Virginia and that he has no moral right to aspire to that honorable position," and Governor Swanson has publicly called upon the Republican nominee to demand an explanation from Mr. Glass or retire from the race for governor.

What all of this is about, the public is not in a position to know, but one thing is certain—unless Mr. Glass is a base slanderer, unfit to be in congress or to hold any position of honor or trust at the hands of the people, the Republican party made a terrible mistake in selecting a candidate for governor.

This is what Mr. Glass said in reference to Captain Kent's attack upon the Democratic administration in Virginia:

"Captain Kent says there has been stealing by the Democrats, and that if he is elected Governor somebody will wear the garb of a convict. Captain Kent ought to speak gingerly and with much charity. I assume all responsibility as a citizen and Congressman while I here declare that I know that Kent is not fit to be Governor of Virginia and that he has no moral right to aspire to that honorable position.

"I have proclaimed this fact wherever I have spoken. If Kent values his reputation and desires to vindicate his honor, he has but to speak the word and hear. He is not worthy to be Governor and his election would be a degradation to the State. I would never have made this assertion but that I feel it my solemn duty to do so. I do not say this in the last days of the campaign, but I said it a month ago, and in every speech I have made, and the Republican candidate knows it. On his request I will tell and prove this charge tonight or tomorrow or at any time."

If Captain Kent does not compel Mr. Glass to produce his charges and proof, he will be eliminating from politics and public life in Virginia. He would be too great a burden for any party, particularly for the already heavily burdened Republican party in Virginia.

What is said to be a resume of the charge Mr. Glass offers to prove against Captain Kent was published in a Richmond afternoon paper yesterday. However, this paper does not care to discuss the charge itself until it has direct authentic information in regard to it.

THE EAST END PAVING EXPERIMENT.

If the plans of the highways and sewers committee of the council for the improvement of streets in East End are carried out successfully, the problem of side-street improvement in the city will be solved. It is not necessary to put down an expensive pavement on side streets not used as main thoroughfares or for heavy hauling, but heretofore the council has been unable to hit upon any practical scheme for improving these streets at small cost.

Crushed stone is comparatively cheap, and if the East End experiment proves successful, in a few years Newport News can have all of its streets in presentable condition.

CONSPICUOUS BY ITS ABSENCE.

It is interesting to note that most of the local Republican candidates for office are not making any special display of the fact that they are the nominees of the Grand Old Party. On some of the advertising cards issued by the candidates the name Republican is conspicuous by its absence.

DEMOCRATS TO HAVE BIG RALLY TONIGHT

Five Speakers Will Address Meeting of Third Ward Voters.

Final preparations have been made for the big Democratic rally at 8 o'clock tonight in Petzold's hall, Chestnut avenue and Twenty-seventh street, under the auspices of the Third Ward Democratic Club. President W. C. Harris will preside and introduce the speakers.

Addresses are to be made by Commonwealth's Attorney Charles C. Berkeley, who is a candidate to succeed himself; Hon. L. P. Stearnes, candidate of the house of delegates; former Mayor Allan A. Moss, Attorney Stanley Scott, and Commonwealth's Attorney E. C. Folkes, of Richmond.

The Third ward club is very active in the present campaign and will make every effort to poll a substantial Democratic majority in the election Tuesday. The club has rallied around Councilman J. C. Wallace, the party nominee for constable, and the members are confident that he will sweep the ward by a big majority.

NORFOLK BLUES AND "SAINTS" MEET TODAY

Several College Stars Will Play in Game on Casino Gridiron This Afternoon.

Saint Vincent and the eleven of the Norfolk Blues will meet on the Casino gridiron this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in what promises to be one of the best games of the season in this city. Hammond Johnson and Branch Johnson, two former University of Virginia stars; Jim Harry, one of the greatest ends Virginia ever had, and Fuerstein, a star quarterback, are playing with the Norfolk team. Several other college stars also are playing with the visitors and the team is said to be one of the strongest in Virginia.

The locals will use their strongest lineup today, and are confident that they can hold the visitors. It is expected that a big crowd will be on hand.

STEAMER POWHATAN RUNS DOWN BARGE

Engineer of the Shenandoah Drowned When the Rammed Vessel Sinks.

(By Associated Press.)
VINEYARD HAVEN, MASS., Oct. 29.—The steamer Powhatan, of the Merchants and Miners Line, carrying 25 passengers and a full cargo of freight from Boston for Norfolk, was in collision late last night just off the Shovelight lightship with the Shenandoah, one of a tow of three barges in tow of the tug International. The barge was sunk and her engineer drowned.

Three other members of the Shenandoah's crew were picked up by the Powhatan. The latter craft returned early today. Her bow plates were bent but she was not leaking. The barges in the International's tow were bound for Boston from Philadelphia.

HALLOWE'EN TO BE CELEBRATED MONDAY

Mayor Jones Issues Proclamation Setting Aside Date—Warning to Public.

In an official proclamation, issued yesterday, Mayor Maryus Jones has designated Monday, November 1, as the date for the celebration of Halloween in this city. The proclamation is as follows:

"Be it known to the people of Newport News that, whereas the 31st day of October falls on Sunday, I have set apart the evening of Monday, the 1st day of November, proximo, for the celebration of Halloween, until 11 o'clock p. m.

"All persons, however, are warned against carrying fire arms or becoming intoxicated or behaving in any riotous or unlawful manner."

It is understood that many of the young people of the city have already made arrangements to celebrate Halloween tonight and they probably will carry out their plans. Thus there will be two celebrations in this city.

AT REST IN HOLLYWOOD

York, and joined the party here this morning.

"Daughter of the Confederacy." Mrs. Hayes was known as the "Daughter of the Confederacy," and her grave is between those of Winnie Davis, a younger sister, who was the first "Daughter of the Confederacy," and of Little Joe Davis, the son of the president, who was killed in Richmond in 1862 by a fall from the rail of the porch of the White House of the Confederacy.

It was in St. Paul's church that President Davis was attending worship on Sunday morning, April 2, 1865, when news was brought to him of the evacuation of Richmond, the Confederate capital.

The black casket containing the ashes containing the ashes of Mrs. Hayes rested all morning in the lecture-room of the church, but was not exposed to the view of the public. At the funeral it was draped with a Confederate flag, which served a similar purpose at the funerals of Mrs. Hayes' parents, and her sister, Miss Winnie Davis.

There was a wealth of exequial and elaborate floral tributes.

IMBLER IS WANTED BY NORFOLK POLICE

Charged That He Enticed Wife and Daughter of James Massie Away from Home.

Detective T. L. Stevenson, of the Norfolk police department, came to this city yesterday and recognized Lewis Imbler, arrested here for house breaking, as the man wanted in that city on a warrant charging him with enticing the wife and daughter of James Massie away from the latter's home in Richmond.

It is alleged that Mrs. Massie and her daughter, Mary, seventeen-years-old, met Imbler in Petersburg, later coming to Norfolk. The husband followed them to Norfolk and, it is alleged, when the husband confronted Imbler, the latter drew a revolver and threatened to shoot.

Chief Reynolds yesterday received a message from Roanoke, saying that Imbler only recently finished serving a jail sentence of 90 ninety for larceny in that city.

Revival at Colored Church.

Rev. Chauncey I. Withrow, the new pastor of the St. James Methodist Episcopal church, colored, in East End, and whose advertisement appears in another column of today's paper, is having considerable success with the revival he is conducting at his church. Services are held each evening and will continue for some time. The new pastor has been successful in every field in which he has worked, and his efforts are expected to result in good among his race in this community.

It's easier to lead some men to the bar than it is to drive them away.

CHICAGOANS DESIRE TO HONOR MR. CRANE

Prominent Men of City Join in Invitation for Dinner to Be Given Him.

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 29.—An invitation, signed by fifty Chicagoans who are leaders in the city's commercial progress and social endeavors, was sent today to Charles R. Crane whose resignation as minister-designate to China recently attracted attention.

Mr. Crane, at present in New York, is asked to be the guest of honor at a dinner to be given at Mr. Crane's convenience.

The invitation speaks of the recall of the former minister-designate, upholding his attitude in every respect. Among the names attached to it are the following: H. T. Hutchinson, David R. Forgan, Harry Pratt Judson, Charles G. Dawes, George E. Roberts, George R. Peck, D. H. Burnham, James B. Fagan, S. M. Felton, A. J. Earling and Victor F. Lawson.

The invitation reads in part: "We desire in this public manner to express our appreciation of your character and disinterested public service. We regard as not the least of these services your vigorous advocacy of the protection and extension of American commercial and political interests in the Orient, in full accord with the well known views of President Taft and with his epoch-making speech at Shanghai in 1907. "Your unusual prudence, wisdom and modesty has been demonstrated to us by an acquaintance extending over twenty-five years of an active business and social life. So far no conduct of your own has diminished our confidence in your fitness. We believe that the published circumstances, trivial in themselves were unfairly made use of in an attempt to humiliate you without adequate cause and we wish by this means publicly to protest against such methods which cannot fail to cause a tendency to discourage private citizens from accepting public office."

CUBAN CONSERVATIVES WILL OPPOSE GOMEZ

Resolution Unanimously Adopted Declaring President's Administration a Failure.

(By Associated Press.)
HAVANA, Oct. 29.—A meeting of the national committee of conservatives was held today with the purpose of deciding preparatory to the opening of congress what the future course of the party shall be.

All the speakers stated that the administration of President Gomez was a failure and that it was the duty of the conservatives to abandon the policy of sustaining the government, which hitherto had failed of the purpose after giving it a fair trial, and to begin an active anti-administration campaign in congress and the press. A resolution to this effect was unanimously adopted.

It is rumored that President Gomez probably will attempt to placate the conservatives by offering them positions in the cabinet in which already there are two vacancies and from which there is a strong probability that Secretary of the Treasury Villanueva will soon retire.

Intense interest attaches to the budget which President Gomez will submit to congress. It is rumored that it will carry an annual considerably in excess of the current budget, and if this should prove true it will produce a very bad effect.

AUTOMOBILE PARTY AT WINSTON-SALEM

"Ty" Cobb the Star Attraction All Along the Route—Reception Tendered.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Oct. 29.—The New York Herald-Atlanta Journal good roads automobile party, enroute from New York to Atlanta, made a fine run from Roanoke to Winston-Salem today, a distance of 125 miles.

The checking car left Roanoke at 8 a. m., stopping one hour at Martinsville for lunch and arrived here at 2:45. The roads were found in splendid condition. At Martinsville the citizens turned out en masse and gave the visitors an enthusiastic welcome.

"Ty" Cobb, as usual, was the star attraction all along the route. Great throngs greeted the visitors upon their arrival here and much eagerness was manifested to see the famous baseball player. Tonight a reception and smoker was tendered the highway automobilists at Hotel Zimendorff. By request "Ty" Cobb made a speech on baseball. Other members of the party also spoke.

The party leaves tomorrow morning for Charlotte where they will spend

Two cars were put out of commission this morning. The Franklin, entered from Jacksonville, Fla., ran into a farmer's wagon four miles out from Roanoke and sustained damages which resulted in indefinite delay. The farmer is reported to have been badly injured.

While crossing Chestnut creek, 35 miles out from Roanoke, a pin in the Maxwell blew out.

The two cars may rejoin the other tourists at Charlotte Sunday.

NOT BRYAN, HE THINKS.

Norman E. Mack Makes Statement About Next Democratic Candidate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 29.—"I do not believe that Bryan will be the next Democratic candidate for the presidency."

Norman E. Mack chairman of the national Democratic committee gave out this statement today.

In reply to a question to whom he thought would be the next Democratic candidate, Mr. Mack declared that, due to his position, he could not play favorites.
